DIED SUDDENLY OF HEART DISEASE.

How frequently does a head line similar to the above greet us in the newspapers. The rush, push and strenuousness of the American people has a strong tendency to lead up to valvular and other affections of the heart, attended by irregular action, palpitation, dizziness, smothered sensations and other distressing symptoms.

Three of the prominent ingredients of which Dr. Pierce's Golden Medical Discovery is made are recommended by some of the leading writers on Materia Medica for the cure of just such cases. Golden Seal root, for instance, is said by the UNITED STATES DISPENSATORY, a standard authority, "to impart tone and increased power to the heart's action." Numerous other leading authorities represent Golden Seal as an unsurpassed tonic for the muscular system in general, and as the heart is almost wholly composed of muscular tissue, it naturally follows that it must be greatly strengthened by this superb, general tonic. But probably the most important ingredient of "Golden Medical Discovery," so far as its marvelous cures of valvular and other affections of the heart are concerned, is Stone root, or Collinsonia Can., Prof. Wm. Paine, author of Paine's Epitomy of Medicine, says of it:

"I, not long since, had a patient who was so much oppressed with valvular disease of the heart that his friends were obliged to carry him up-stairs. He, however, gradually recovered under the influence of Collinsonin (medicinal principle extracted from Stone root), and is now attending to his business. Heretofore physicians knew of no remedy for the removal of so distressing and so dangerous a malady. With them it was all guess-work, and it fearfully warned the afflicted that death was near at hand. Collinsonin unquestionably affords relief in such cases, and in most instances effects a cure."

Stone root is also recommended by Drs. Hale and Ellingwood, of Chicago, for valvular and other diseases of the heart. The latter says: "It is a heart tonic of direct and permanent influence."

"Golden Medical Discovery," not only cures serious heart affections, but is a most efficient general tonic and invigorator, strengthening the stomach, invigorating the liver, regulating the bowels and curing catarrha affections in all parts of the system.

THE POWER OF STEAM.

Many May See But Few Takes Genius to Realize.

When James Watt saw the steam causing the kettle lid to jump up and down he said "There must be power in that steam that it can lift such a weight."

There was.

Millions prior to him had seen the same phenomenon and regarded it as an unexplained mystery.

Recent scientific research has put its finger on the "cause" of Dandruff, Falling Hair, and consequent Baldness, and has unearthed a tiny germ which eats the life from the roots of human hair.

Newbro's Herpicide destroys this germ and consequently restores the hair to its natural state.

UMPIRE JOHNSTONE BARRED

Umpire Johnstone, whose decisions in Monday's baseball game between New York and Chicago caused a riot, was barred from the Polo Grounds in New York yesterday afternoon by Police Inspector Sweeney, who informed the umpire that he would not be permitted to enter, as his presence might be condutive to a general riot. The New York and Chicago teams are in a spirited struggle for premiership in the National League, and but a few games separate the Giants from the lead. As a result, interest is intense and feeling runs high. On Monday Johnstone was voted down by the local rooters, and it was the common report that a plentiful supply of overripe hen fruit had been provided by the more aggressive rooters for the benefit of the disliked umpire. The police heard and believed these reports and the trouble followed.

Umpire Emslie refused to officiate unless Johnstone was also in the game, but the police would not relent, and the Giant's management made no effort to influence Inspector Sweeney's decision.

Umpire Johnstone then declared the game forfeited to Chicago by a score of 9 to 0.

Manager McGraw says the game is forfeited by Chicago, but as a matter of fact the decision on the merits of the dispute will not be settled until after the National League directors meet.

After a long conference between McGraw and Chance, with the crowd yelling for the teams to play ball, McGraw called upon his utility man, Strang, to officiate as umpire. Strang went on the field to officiate, but Chance would not appoint a player for his team, and the spectators began to grow ugly and demanded some return for their money. The situation was not improved when the Chicago players made a rush off the field for the clubhouse. The spectators began to turn out of the seats, and Joe Humphreys jumped into the center of the field and stated the reason why the game did not go on.

He said that Johnstone had been barred out and that Emslie wouldn't come in without him.

THE SALISBURY LYNCHING.

Salisbury, N. C., is quiet now after the triple lynching Monday night.

Yesterday J. C. McLendon, the Southern Railway engineer who was shot in the mouth, died in the hospital. He leaves a widow and four children. An officer is said to have shot the engineer as he was battering a window. Others say that he was merely a spectator.

Solicitor Hammer is securing names of witnesses to place before the grand jury.

George Hall is in jail charged with being a leader of the mob, and it is feared an attempt will be made to rescue him.

Geo. Irvin and Henry Gillespie and the wives of Jack Dillingham and Nease Gillespie, the latter two of whom were lynched, were taken to Charlotte yesterday morning for safekeeping.

True bills for murder in the first degree were found by the grand jury Monday against Irvin, Henry Gillespie and the Dillingham woman, but the mob did not disturb them Monday.

The bodies of the three men lynched were yesterday viewed by Corner Bolsett and taken down from the limb to which they had been hanged by the mob. The victims are said to have been horribly tortured by the use of knives—ears and fingers of each being cut off. After being strung to the tree the bodies were riddled with bullets by the infuriated mob.

The jail is a wreck, with the exception of the walls, the mob having effected an entrance by chopping down the rear door, after which the locks to the cell were broken. The inmates shrieked for mercy.

The two Misses Lyerly who escaped death on the night of the murder late Monday night visited the scene of the lynching and viewed the bodies of the victims dangling in the moonshine. The negroes had intended to burn them alive after killing their parents.

Claims $299,980 Fee.

Dr. C. C. Hendricks, of Atlantic City, N. J., entered suit in Pittsburg, Pa., yesterday against Mrs. Laura Biggar Bennett, widow of Henry M. Bennett, a former theatrical manager of Brooklyn and Pittsburg, claiming $299,980 for professional services. Dr. Hendricks alleges that he attended Mrs. Bennett in his private sanitarium, in New Jersey, for two years, and that he was only paid $20 during that time.

The suit is in the nature of a foreign attachment and attaches all goods, moneys, credits and chattels in the hands of Peter J. McNulty and James Platt, of Pittsburg, the executors of the will of Henry M. Bennett, and those two men, with Richard M. Gulick individually, summoning them as garnishees.

Dr. Hendricks says Mrs. Bennett now resides in Chicago, and, to the best of his belief, has no place of residence where service may be had on her in New York state.

A Healing Gospel.

The Rev. J. C. Warren, pastor of Sharon Baptist Church, Belair, Ga., says of Electric Bitters:" 'It's a Godsend to mankind. It cured me of lame back, stiff joints, and complete physical collapse. I was so weak it took me half an hour to walk a mile. Two bottles of Electric Bitters have made me so strong I have just walked three miles in 50 minutes and feel like walking three more. It's made a new man of me." Greatest remedy for weakness and all Stomach, Liver and Kidney complaints. Sold under guarantee at E. S. Leadbeater & Sons' drug store. Price only 50c.

Walked in Her Sleep.

A dispatch from London says a somewhat weird scene was witnessed early Friday morning by a few clubmen who were proceeding homeward along Maida Vale. At the gate of a large residence stood a tall, slim figure, clad in white. The figure remained motionless, as did also the spectators. At length the "apparition" opened the gate, and walked stealthily along the pavement for about twenty yards. Just then a gentlemen emerged from the house, carrying a cloak which he wrapped gently around the disappearing figure. The gentleman took his daughter's arm and led her back home. It transpired that the young girl has, since a severe illness, been a somnambulistic subject for about two years.

WEDNESDAY EVENING, AUG. 8, 1906.

ACCORDING to dispatches from St. Petersburg, there seems to be a lull in the disorderly proceedings which have disgraced the Russian empire during the past year or more. The projected strike has proven to be a failure and a rift appears in the dark clouds which have recently hung over the Czar's domains. The belief, however, is held in some quarters that Nicholar's troubles are by no means over, and that the present intermission of disorder is no indication that the disorderly elements have been effectually downed. Money is a most sensative barometer, and European financial circles are still apprehensive. Considering the fact that the Rothschilds and other great financial houses of Paris are more extensively interested than any one else in the world in Russian government bonds, since nearly the whole of Russia's colossal foreign debt is held in France, their opinion about the present situation in the dominions of the Czar is of the utmost importance. Certainly no people have more at stake in the Muscovite Empire, or more extensive means for obtaining absolutely trustworthy and unprejudiced information. The head of the Paris house in a recent interview said he anticipates very sinister development at St. Petersburg, if not immediately, at all events in the not far-off future—developments on a line with those which marked the birth of the French revolution in 1793. In one word, the Rothschilds and the other captains of finance in Paris, while they do not expect any repudiation of the Russian debt, or the complete collapse of Muscovite securities on the Bourse, nevertheless entertain the gravest fears as to the safety of the Czar, the two empresses and the imperial family. In connection with this it is necessary to bear in mind that, until the other day, no attempt to assassinate the Czar was known to have been made. His life had never even been threatened by the nihilists, although they had endeavored to terrorize him by murdering his relatives, his ministers and his generals. Now, however, the nihilists are understood to have abandoned all hopes that they had reposed in him, and to have singled him out for destruction. That is what renders the situation, as far as the dynasty is concerned, so perilous.

INDISPOSITION seems to be an expensive misfortune in some cases. Dr. C. C. Hendricks, of Atlantic City, has sued Mrs. Laura Biggar Bennett for $299,980 for attending her husband, Henry M. Bennett, during his last illness. Dr. Samuel Thompson Banes is also a high priced physician. He is suing in the Supreme Court of Philadelphia to recover $33,070 from the estate of William T. Rainey, a wealthy Philadelphian, who died two years ago. The doctor claims $300 a day for every day of actual attendance. In addition he was to be reimbursed for all traveling and other expenses. Dr. Banes says he put in 100 days in exclusively attending Mr. Rainey's ailments, the balance of his bill representing expenses, traveling and otherwise. The doctors claims that the deceased entered into an agreement with him that he was to receive the amount of the bill he has rendered.

THE RECENT hot wave left death in its wake in many places. Several hundred adults will probably die from its effects. Scores succumbed as soon as they were prostrated, and others were driven to suicide. Hundreds of infants have pined and died from the tropical heat, while their elders, who are compelled to live in badly-ventilated tenement houses, have endured untold suffering. Hot waves are as fatal as cyclones or earthquakes. The latter do their work more speedily, but the train of death is often smaller than that following a torrid season. The effects of a heated spell are more lasting, as many weak and aged people are prostrated by torrid weather and never recover. There have been no fatal cases in Alexandria, although the heat here has been as intense as elsewhere.

A CHICAGO bank is short three officers and nearly a million dollars. The depositors wouldn't mind the officers if they could recover the money; but unfortunately it will be much easier to get possession of the president, cashier and assistant cashier than of the million dollars. The president is supposed to be in St. Paul and his son, the vice president, says he will return. Speculation and plain, every-day gambling appear to have absorbed the funds of the bank, which is State institution. Most of the depositors are of foreign birth and small means, working people and petty tradesmen, and two deaths have already occurred as a result of the failure.

DURING the campaign in Iowa the railroads were so eager to defeat Governor Cummins that they circulated the statement that he had not increased their assessments as much as he had increased the assessments of farm property. It was the worst case of biting off one's nose to spite one's face that could be imagined. They did not beat the governor, and now he and the executive council have taken their own word for it and added $4,000,000 to their assessed $150,000 a year for the idiocy of accusing him of partiality to themselves.

CAMPAIGN buttons are becoming numerous in the southern states with the inscription: "For President in 1908, Chas. W. Fairbanks." The federal officials are discreetly keeping the buttons in their pockets, as they know that to espouse the cause of the Wabash statesman would rumple the feathers of the President and probably lead to their divorce from the public trough. It's rather early to get excited about delegates to the national convention, which is two years off, especially as "offices and hard cash" have always decided who the delegates to a republican national convention would vote for.

THE tariff question will never down until it is settled to the advantage of the American people instead of as now for the benefit of trusts and corporations. It was President Garfield, who was a tariff reformer, who said: "Unsettled questions have no pity for the repose of nations," and if he were alive today, he would doubtless add, "or for those republicans who for selfish and sordid reasons are stand-patters."

THE "Novoe Vremya," of St Petersburg, sees in a vision a war between Japan and the United States, and predicts that Japan will conquer, take Hawaii and the Philippines and occupy California.

Washington, Aug. 8

Vigorous action will be taken by the United States government against the Japanese poachers whose arrest in the Aleutian Islands has been reported to the Department of Commerce and Labor by Solicitor Sims, who was sent to Alaska some time ago to investigate the general subject of seal fishing. Mr. Sims' report of the killing of five Jap poachers and the arrest of 12 others while they were making a raid on the seals has been turned over to the State Department, the Treasury Department and the Department of Justice. The State Department will formally protest to the Jap government against the continuation of the poaching raids in Alaskan waters by Jap fishermen. The Treasury Department will order the revenue cutter McCulloch to return at once to the seal islands to make every effort to run down any remaining raiders in the vicinity. The Department of Justice will take up the matter of prosecuting the prisoners now held. It is desired also by the Department of Commerce and Labor to get an opinion from the Attorney General as to whether raiding schooners within the three mile limit can be seized for piracy. This morning acting Secretary of State Bacon sent a long cablegram to the United States Ambassador at Tokio detailing the circumstances of the killing of the Jap fishermen. It is stated at the department that there will be no international complications with Japan over the incident. The United States government considers that the Japs were entirely in the wrong and that the agents of the United States were entirely in the right in what they did. Counsellor Miyaoka, of the Japanese Embassy, had a long conference with Assistant Secretary Bacon, today at the State Department. His attitude was entirely reasonable, it was said. He expressed only a desire for full information in order that he might communicate it to his government. He stated that he had received no advices on the subject from Tokio. Although the killing of the Japanese fishermen is deplored, the general opinion in official circles here is that the incident will furnish a much needed lesson. The government intends to wield the big stick hereafter in Alaskan waters, and to put an end to the poaching.

Secretary Wilson of the Agricultural Department has gained the reputation of being the only cabinet official who has never taken a vacation. It has been years since the Iowan thus indulged himself. "What's the difference between climbing upstairs in a packing house and clamboring up a mountain side?" was his answer the other day to a query about his vacation, just after he had returned from the inspection of several packing houses. Last summer the secretary was bothered with the cotton leak scandal. This year the revolution in the meat inspection has brought additional burdens to the secretary. He has made several trips through the country in this connection and for one or two days was at his farm in Iowa. That's the nearest he has come to getting a vacation, and he pretends to be enjoying his summer at his office at work, reading in his apartments or taking his meals at the University Club, as other members of the cabinet do their visits to the mountains or on sea shores.

Sister Gonzaga, of the Convent of Visitation, Connecticut and L streets, died last night. Sister Gonzaga was a daughter of the late Benjamin F. and Martha Watson, of this city.

Staff officers and department commanders of the G. A. R. by a large majority endorse the recent utterances of "Corporal" commander-in-chief, Tanner, that the passage by Congress of an act abolishing canteens from national soldier's homes after next March was "unwise and a blow at real temperance, besides a restriction of the personal liberties of veterans of the civil war that ought to be resented." A number of prominent officials of the organization have written "Corporal" Tanner of their intention to bring the matter before the national encampment, which meets next week at Minneapolis. The resolutions censuring Congress and demanding that "the old soldier be treated as as able to care for himself," will doubtless cause a hot fight as there are a number of officials who approve the work of Congress. After the interview with Commander-in-chief Tanner appeared in the newspapers, letters were sent to each staff officer and departmental commander of the organization asking his views on the question. Of thirty answers that have been received twenty are strong in their approval of the attitude of the commander-in-chief, five favor the abolition of the canteen and five are non-committal.

After considering a statement of facts by the Board of Health of West Virginia, the Department of Commerce and Labor decided today that it could not deport George Rossetti, the Syrian leper, who is now at Elkins, W. Va. It was admitted in this report, presented through the Marine Hospital Service, that Rossetti did not develop the disease within two years after coming to this country. Only in that event could he have been deported. The West Virginia officials will be notified that the federal government can do nothing to assist them in their dilemma.

Without a cent in their pockets, H. W. Englin, nephew of Rear Admiral Evans, and Richard J. Cook, another Washington boy, started yesterday for a trip around the world on a wager. The terms of the wager are that the trip shall be made within the year, and that all expenses shall be paid for out of money earned while en route.

A dispatch from Dutch Harbor, Alaska, dated July 26, says that five Japanese were shot and killed on the Island of St. Paul, in the Pribiloff group, by order of the agent of the Department of Commerce and Labor on July 17. The engagement was the result of a raid by four Japanese schooners on the seal rookeries. The revenue cutter McCullough reached Dutch Harbor on the 26th ultimo from St. Paul with 12 prisoners, two of them seriously wounded. They were turned over to Deputy Marshal Harmon.

Marcus Snyder was gathering wild cherries in a tree along the banks of the Morris canal, near Centreville, N. J., Monday afternoon when a limb broke, and he struck a wasps' nest and fell into the water. The wasps didn't go into the water, but waited until Snyder came to the surface, and then attacked him savagely. They stung him on the head and kept him ducking under water until he was almost exhausted. But for the arrival of a canalboat Snyder might have been drowned. He seized the rudder, however, and was dragged along with the boat to a point of safety.

A. C. Jones, candidate for governor of South Carolina, was arrested at the State campaign meeting at Chester yesterday by order of Mayor Hardin, who was seated on the platform. Jones had made his speech along with the other candidates for governor. When J. Fraser Lyon, candidate for attorney general, was delivering his speech, Jones interrupted him with a question. Lyon replied with a question. Jones then demanded to be heard, but the chairman refused the demand. Jones persisted in being heard, whereupon his arrest was ordered, two policemen coming from the audience and making the arrest.

While sitting at the dinner table ridiculing his wife because she covered up her face to hide her eyes from a vivid electrical display during a storm at Hartford City, Ind., Monday, William Fenner, 45 years old, a farmer, was struck and instantly killed by a bolt of lightning. When a previous loud clap of thunder, accompanied by a sharp flash of lightning, burst over the house the members of the family jumped from their chairs in fear, and the wife hid her face in her hands. Fenner jokingly remarked: "You might as well sit still, for ou can't dodge lightning." An instant later another crash came, killing Fenner.

STATE BAR ASSOCIATION.

The eighteenth annual session of the Virginia State Bar Association opened at Hot Springs yesterday morning with a much larger attendance than in several years past. The large number of ladies who are in attendance is remarked. The session was called to order at 10:30 o'clock yesterday morning in the ballroom at the Homestead by Judge Archer A. Phlegar, the president. He was loudly applauded when he announced that he would proceed to deliver his annual address, taking for his subject the work of the last session of the legislature of Virginia. The address was quite lengthy, but it was of deep interest to the lawyers, and the laity present were entertained by the frequent flashes of wit and the humorous turns with which the speaker illuminated his subject.

At the conclusion of his address John B. Minor, of Richmond, secretary-treasurer, read his annual report, which showed that the membership of the association, including honorary members, was now 510. The association's income for the past year was about $8,000, with expenditures about $2,100. Nineteen new members were added to the list yesterday.

At the session last night, which was held in the casino, in order that young people might have the ballroom for dancing, E. Hilton Jackson, of the Washington bar, read a paper on "The Dismemberment of Virginia." As Mr. Hilton took the ground that the act setting up a separate government in that part of Virginia west of the Alleghanies was unconstitutional and without warrant. He was repeatedly applauded. The paper was an able one, and evinced great care and research in its preparation.

Associate Justice Brewer, of the Supreme Court of the United States, delivered an address to the association this morning. The convention will adjourn Thursday. The usual banquet will be held Thursday night.

Fall of a Balloonist.

William Johnson, a balloonist, made an ascension in connection with a street fair in Little Falls, N. Y., yesterday. In coming down with a parachute the apparatus failed to work and Johnson fell upon the railroad tracks, receiving injuries which undoubtedly will cause his death.

Johnson went up to a great height and it is estimated he was 3,000 feet high when he left the balloon to make what is called a double parachute descent. The first parachute opened well and Johnson descended about two-thirds of the distance. Then he attempted to open the second parachute and descend the remainder of the distance with that. He discarded the first parachute and as he grasped the handle of the second one the strings broke, causing it to collapse.

Johnson shot down very rapidly and the thousands who were watching him were horror-stricken. He attempted to guide his descent so that he would strike the wires running along the railway which climbs the cliff. He partially succeeded in this, but he went through the wires and fell to the bottom of the cliff striking upon the railroad tracks 100 feet below. His spine was fractured at the base of the brain.

Today's Telegraphic News

The Killing of Japanese Fishermen.

Washington, D. C., Aug. 8.—A report of the killing of five Japanese fishermen and the capture of twelve Japanese prisoners on Attu Island, the prisoners having been taken by the revenue cutter McCulloch, commanded by Captain J. C. Cantwell, has been made to the Department of Commerce and Labor today by Edwin W. Sims, a solicitor for the department, who is in Alaska to enforce the new law prohibiting all persons not citizens of the United States from fishing in Alaskan waters. The Japanese killed were shot by Americans on Attu Island before the McCulloch arrived.

Lawrence O. Murray, acting Secretary of Commerce and Labor, promptly turned the cable dispatch over to Robert Bacon, acting Secretary of State. Mr. Bacon will immediately communicate the information he has received to the Japanese Ambassador. There is no to reason expect international complications as a result of the incident, but there is no question that the situation in the Aleutian Islands, especially as it affects the Japanese, is a delicate one, and that numerous difficulties are almost certain to be encountered in enforcing the laws protecting American citizens and their rights. Despatches from Dutch Harbor say that the raiders were discovered by native lookouts of the North American Commercial Company, which leases the seal privileges of the government. Word was telephoned to the nearest patrol station toward which the raiders were heading, and special agent Lemboke reached the spot as the Japanese came in shore.

He ordered the boat crew to surrender, which they did. Then from the top of a cliff a second schooner was seen close in shore, her deck covered with seals. When called on to surrender, they tried to make off with their booty in small boats. The agent then ordered his native guard to fire. Three of the Japanese fell dead, a fourth was seen to be thrown overboard, and a fifth body drifted in later. The Japanese had killed more than 200 seals, most of them cows. Those who escaped carried off 120 skins. The raid is believed to have been a concerted effort by the Japanese, who have been hanging around the islands for months, and giving the revenue cutter trouble.

The Tokwa Maru, a schooner, was overhauled by the cutter Perry on July 5. She was crowded with Japanese, but no sealskins were found aboard.

Besides the Tokwa Maru, the schooner Bohio Maru is known to have been in the raid last autumn. Japanese were found fishing and trading with the natives in the island of Attu, the westernmost in the Aleutian chain, and were routed by the Perry.

The prisoners left on July 25 for Valdez, where the court of the second judicial district, in which the seal islands lie, sits in August. The charge will probably be piracy.

Race for King's Cup.

Brentons Reef, R. I., Aug. 8.—A smashing 20-knot southeaster raged across the Atlantic this morning kicking the tops of the curling waves into smothers of spendrift as the fifteen contesting yachts for "The King's Cup" slipped their mooring buoys in Newport harbor and bucked a heavy sea on the way to the Brenton Reef Lightship. Overhead great black clouds, water filled, were driven inshore by the easterly blow and intermittingly drenching showers fell. Off shore it was thick and nasty and the fishermen made heavy weather of it in the boiling sea. It was just the day for the schooners and J. Rogers Maxwell's schooner Queen was the favorite for the race. The contest was scheduled to start at 10 o'clock, but it could not be started on the minute.

"The King's Cup" was presented to the New York Yacht Club by King Edward of England who is an ardent yatchsman The conditions of the contest are governed by the racing rules of the New York Yacht Club. The "Kaiser's Cup' race last year over the Atlantic was a yachting success and King Edward was quick to learn that his nephew, the German Kaiser, had made a bit. Hence the "King's Cup" from Uncle Edward. The race to-day will have none of the hazardous and perilous features of the "Kaiser's Cup" race over the uncertain Atlantic, but there will be keen sailor craft shown in to-day's contest over the Brentons Reef course, where every point will be fought to the limit. The race with its fifteen starters will be as much a test of skippers as of boats.

Charley Barr, the skipper of the recent America's cup defenders, is sailing Cornelius Vanderbilt's 70-footer Rainbow today while Harry Maxwell was at the tiller of the sloop Yankee. The schooner Queen, sailed by J. Rogers Maxwell, was especially built for this race and her performance today is being watched with more than usual interest. Sail was made early in the harbor of the yachts and by nine o'clock the boats were under way for Brenton's Reef lightship, the starting point.

The interest in the "King's Cup" race was not confined alone the yachtsmen with the fleet of the New York Yacht Club.

Newport is en fete this week and hundreds of visitors swarmed to Commercial wharf and boarded excursion boats which followed the racers over the course. Sir Mortimer Durand, the British Ambassador, saw the race from the deck of the yacht North Star, the guest of Commodore Cornelius Vanderbilt.

Former President Grover Cleveland, who, when he goes yachting, always wishes he was fishing, viewed the race with his old friend E C. Benedict on board the steam yacht Oneida. The quarter decks of the myriad of steam yachts which poked their noses out of Narragansett Bay to the open sea sparkled with pretty girls in sou'westerns.

The rock-bound shores of Newport, too, was filled with fancy dressed women.

The course signalled by the committee was for a race 37½ miles in length over a triangular course.

Unemployed Negroes Riot.

Capetown, South Africa, Aug. 8.—Riots here on the part of unemployed negroes are very serious. The blacks have dominated the eastern section of the city for the last two days. The police have been powerless to quell the rioters although they have charged frequently on the mob. The citizens are living in constant fear of their lives as no house is safe. The streets are now patrolled by the Capetown Highland volunteers with fixed bayonets, but there is no assurance that they will be able to preserve order and a bloody conflict may be precipitated at any moment.

Order Restored.

St. Petersburg, Aug. 8.—Work has been resumed at all the mills and factories. The failure of the strike is regarded as open recognition of the powerlessness of the extremists. Order has been restored in the capital.

Well-informed authorities here believe that Admiral Skrydloff, commander in chief of the Black Sea fleet, himself organized the theft of certain documents at Sevastopol needed in the trial of mutineers there in order to escape the responsibility of passing sentence of death on the mutineers. By the time a fresh inquiry has been finished, the affair will probably be forgotten and amnesty extended to the rebellious men.

The government has entrusted to the Ministry of the Interior the preparation of a bill dealing with the Jewish question.

Riga, Russia, Aug. 8.—Sixty-six men on board a training ship lying in the harbor were placed under arrest this morning owing to their loyalty being questioned.

Warsaw, Aug. 8.—As the result of the depredations carried on by terrorists throughout the province in attacking and robbing postoffices, government spirit stores, treasuries and the mails the Governor-General has issued a proclamation in which he states that henceforth the inhabitants of cities or villages where such outbreaks occur will be required to pay the losses sustained in such robberies. Anyone who refuses to contribute his share to making good the losses will be imprisoned for three months.

Mutiny at League Island Navy Yard.

Philadelphia, Aug. 8.—A mutiny among the marines at the League Island Navy Yard, which was quelled only after a fierce hand-to-hand struggle, in which two enlisted men were badly injured, resulted in the arrest of five marines and ten sailors. The former are in double irons on the receiving ship Lancaster, and the latter are under arrest in the temporary camp. The mutiny occurred late Monday night and was directly due to a spree which several men had at Gloucester. These men sold their uniforms, bought beer with the money and smuggled the liquor into camp. After getting drunk they attempted to jump the guard and when halted attacked the corporal. The mutineers were aided by their friends and were getting the best of the loyal men when the alarm was sounded. All of the men off duty were in their hammocks on the Lancaster when the warning was sounded, but they responded quickly. A general fight followed, during which several shots were fired and bayonets employed to quell the rioters. One of the ringleaders had his throat slashed from ear to ear, another had his shoulder pierced and a third received a slight gunshot wound. Privates Burnett, Kelsey, Haggerty, Allerson and Rowland are charged with being the principals. The news of the affair was suppressed for a time.

Resent his Barefoot Cure.

Wilkes-Barre, Pa., Aug. 8.—Some time ago Health Officer Auten, of this city, issued a bulletin to parents, in which he said that if they wanted to keep their children healthy they should allow them to go barefooted. Since then the health officer has been receiving many letters of congratulation and criticism. A New York judge writes that he is glad one man has been found in the country who believes in living with nature as the true method for health. A shoe manufacturer down East writes that the advice given is bad and that less shoes will be worn than formerly. A shoe man writing from Philadelphia said the Wilkes-Barre health officer did not want to buy shoes for his own children, hence his edict.

Millions in New Coal Vein.

Pottsville, Pa., August 8.—No treasure trove ever found in the olden times equaled in value the 14-foot vein of Lykens red-ash coal which prospectors of the Reading Coal and Iron Company yesterday found several hundred feet beneath the earth's surface of Gleudower colliery, at Taylorsville, in the Hechsher Valley. The vein contains millions of tons of the highest priced anthracite coal and Captain Kidd's mythical millions were a small sum in comparison. The find may be worth $20,000,000. The vein is now being proved. It was found near the dividing line between Foster and Barry townships The local officials of the company are elated over the discovery.

Brother of Czolgosz Would be Policeman

Cleveland, Ohio., August 8.—Michael Czolgosz, brother of Leon Czolgosz, assassin of President McKinley, has applied for a position on the police force of Cleveland. He said tonight that his impelling motive was to remove the stain from the family name, but later asked that the statement be ignored because of the wish of his aged father. While he was talking a glance into the next room revealed upon the wall a portrait of his anarchist brother. Czolgosz has taken both the mental and physical examinations for the position he covets. He has passed the latter with flying colors, but is fearful of the results of the former.

After the Ice Barons.

New York, Aug. 8.—District Attorney Jerome kept the promise made by him day before yesterday and personally appeared before the August grand jury today to take up the investigation of the ice question before that body. His reply was: "No, that is a lie. We are buying ice in Philadelphia."

William Jennings Bryan.

London, Aug. 8.—The Globe today prints an article in which it refers patronizingly to the return of William Jennings Bryan to the United States, after his tour abroad. Among other things, it says: "Whereas, before he was merely a brilliant provincial politician he is now a traveled, cultured man, of the world who understands something about the conditions prevailing in Europe. In this respect he will have the advantage of President Roosevelt."

Suit for Damages.

Will W. Douglass, a practicing attorney of Washington and a resident of Alexandria county, began suit in the Supreme Court of the District of Columbia yesterday to recover $25,000 damages for alleged defamation of character from Augustus Davis, jr, Curtis B. Graham, Michael J. Ryan, Harry T. Palmer, George W. Veitch, John S. Embrey and Enoch F. Burner. The suit is the outgrowth of an attempt on the part of the defendants, some of whom are residents of the District of Columbia and some of Alexandria county, to remove Mr. Douglass from his position as supervisor of Arlington magisterial district. It is alleged that the defendants, "disregarding the reputation and good name" of Mr. Douglass, and the fact that he had always performed his duties as supervisor to the best of his ability, made an appeal to the Circuit Court of Alexandria county in an effort to have him removed. Among other charges made against him by the defendants, the petition of Mr. Douglass says, it was charged that he caused the purchase of large quantities of sand and gravel from his father, Albert P. Douglass, for use on the roads in Arlington district, when, according to the defendant, the sand and gravel were unfit for road uses. Another charge, he says, was that he improved certain roads near his own property at great cost. These charges were dismissed, Mr. Douglass says, when presented to the Circuit Court of Alexandria county.

Charged with Thefts.

Mantis Brothers, fruit dealers, yesterday charged a colored boy named Charles Jackson with stealing $25 from their store on King street, near Pitt. One of the brothers caught Jackson and handled him roughly, but released him, after which the accused disappeared. Later Officers Roberts and Lyles went to a house on King street, where Jackson had been employed, in search of the fugitive. They failed to find him and subsequently swore out a warrant against the proprietor, a colored man, charging him with aiding Jackson to escape. The case came up in the Police Court this morning when it was shown that the colored man discharged the boy from his service as soon as he heard he was accused of stealing. The charge against him was, therefore, dismissed.

Officer Knight this morning arrested a colored woman named Amelia Ford on a charge of stealing sundry articles from a residence in which she was employed. The woman, it will be remembered, was taken into custody some time ago on a charge of stealing articles from the Crittenton Home in the northern section of the city.

Refreshing Rain.

After another sultry day, during which the mercury in the thermometer was at times high in the nineties, a refreshing rain fell in this city and vicinity late yesterday evening which afforded considerable relief. The clouds gathered in the west and the winds having changed from the south to that quarter chased away the hot wave which had caused so much discomfort during the past few days. The temperature remained pleasant for some time after the rain ceased to fall, although later the wind died away. Conditions today, while warm, have been a decided improvement on those which had prevailed since last week.

W. C. T. U.

The W. C. T. U. will meet at the Children's Crittendon Home on Duke street tomorrow (Thursday) afternoon at 3:30 o'clock. This is the annual meeting for the election of officers for the ensuing year. Matters of interest to the Union will also be presented for consideration. A good attendance is desired.

At 8 o'clock Thursday evening at the same place the regular Gospel temperance prayer meeting will be held, Mr. Crass will deliver a short address. A special orchestra from Washington will render music and an evangelistic soloist will sing on the occasion.

Sale of a Tugboat.

Capt. John D. Adams, of Baltimore, has purchased from Gummell & Co., Washington, the tugboat W. H. Mohler. The tugboat will be used for towing at Baltimore. The Mohler was built in Philadelphia in 1864 as the J. G. Loane, after which she became a government tug and was named the Zeta. This clung to her until she was given her present name. The Mohler is 55 feet 5 inches long, 14 feet 8 inches beam and 6 feet molded depth. She registers 36 tons gross. She has a single engine 15 inches square.

A New Enterprise.

The United States Electrical Supply Company has made arrangements with the owners of the Alexandria shipyard for space and buildings at the yard, and will at an early date commence the manufacture there of all the articles made of wood used in the construction of electric appliances, &c. The company has been quietly engaged for some time in making their arrangements for establishing their plant in this city, and having completed them in an entirely satisfactory manner will soon commence operations.

Alexandrian Weds.

A dispatch from Rockville, Md., says: "Rev. Samuel English, of the Free Methodist Church, formerly of Alexandria, Va., but for the past few years a resident of this place, and Miss Mary Ellen Bean, of Rockville, were married yesterday at the home of the bride's brother, Mr. William Bean, in the presence of a few friends. The officiating minister was Rev. J. W. Tamblyn, pastor of the Rockville Free Methodist Church."

New Wires.

The electric railway company has been engaged during the past few days in stringing new wires in this city. The old trolly wires have been replaced by new, the guy wires renewed and the supports strengthened and rendered more secure.

Police Court.

[Justice H. B. Caton presiding.]

The following cases were disposed of this morning:

Philip Ross and Jere Dorsey, both colored, arrested by Chief Goods and Officer Jones for gambling, were fined $5 each.

A white man, arrested by Officer Jones charged with improper conduct, was fined $5

A white man, arrested by Officer Jones for being drunk on the street, was released upon making an affidavit that he would abstain from the use of liquor as a beverage for five years.

Charles Harriman, arrested by Officers Beach and Garvey for being drunk on the street and for disorderly conduct, was fined $5.

Theodore Groomes and Edward Baltimore, both colored, arrested by Officer Young charged with assaulting James Hide, were fined $2.50 each.

Sarah Jackson, charged with assaulting the wife of John Fox, was fined $5.

A colored man arrested by Officers Roberts and Lyles charged with aiding a fugitive from justice, was dismissed.

TELEGRAPHIC BREVITIES.

Reports from San Angelo, Ballinger and Brownwood, Texas, today, indicate improvement in the flood situation. At San Angelo the waters have receded and the greatest loss appears to have been in live stock, though there has been considerable property and crop losses which may reach hundreds of thousands of dollars. At Brownwood 2,000 feet of the Santa Fe Railway was washed away and hundreds of people were driven from their homes.

A CARD.

I desire to express my sincere and heartfelt thanks to the management of the Alexandria Hospital, especially to the matron, Mrs. Adamson, and the attending nurses for their great kindness and sympathy to my wife in her short but fatal illness at that institution. They certainly did all that human kindness and experience could accomplish. Also to the attending physician, Dr Moore and his assistants, who did everything that human skill could do to relieve her suffering and prolong her life. But no one realizes more than I how serious was her condition and no one appreciates the many acts of kindness shown her than I in my bereavement. I also desire to thank our many friends for their sympathy and kindness.

Sincerely,
WILLIAM C. BRENNER.

Surgeons Under Examination.

The "deadly parallel" was drawn by the prosecution yesterday in the court-martial proceedings in Washington against Theodore Normand Pease, assistant surgeon United States navy, who is charged with violating his oath in an examination for promotion, by making use of written memoranda and collaborating to some extent with Assistant Surgeon Harry Lee Brown. J. D Gatewood, surgeon United States navy, and a member of the examining board before which Surgeons Pease and Brown are alleged to have been guilty of the acts charged in the specifications, was the principal witness examined for the prosecution. Dr. Gatewood, at great length, carefully compared two sets of examination papers submitted by both Surgeons Pease and Brown, which he had discovered when marking the papers.

Dr. Gatewood testified that the examination out of which the charges grew took place in the laboratory of the Naval Medical College, in Washington, from July 16 to 23, inclusive.

Dr. Gatewood then read the answers submitted by both Dr. Pease and Dr. Brown to the first question upon anatomy. He then compared the manuscrips, which indicated, he said, that various portions were not only couched in identical language, but that errors and omissions were common in each.

After several witnesses had been examined the court adjourned till today.

Debates on the Constitution.

The first volume of the convention debates has been distributed to the State officials. The volume is bound in full sheep and contains 1704 pages. More than four years were occupied in getting out the first volume, which contains the proceedings to Jan. 1, 1903, so that it will be seen that there is still a vast amount of condensing to be done in order to get the reports in another volume. The work is very well done.—[Richmond News Leader.

About Those Peaches.

Saturday's supply, 9 bushels, gave out long before closing time. We had counted on selling lots of those peaches when you had found out how good they were. Tomorrow morning we'll have a bigger consignment here for you—right from the orchards; the same orchards that our last week's peaches came from. The same big, sound, well-ripened, luscious kind of peaches—ideal for canning. Get busy. . . . . Going to have some Damsons, too, and everything obtainable in the fruit and vegetable kingdom. . . . . .

We solicit your account, small or large, and offer you every facility that wise, conservative bankers approve, together with absolute safety. WEDNESDAY EVENING, AUG. 8, 1906.

Captain First to Leave Ship.

The Espana Nueva, of Madrid yesterday morning published a dispatch from Barcelona containing a startling statement to account for the wreck of the Sirio.

In this communication it is asserted that the Italian steamer was engaged in the clandestine embarkation of Spanish emigrants along the coast, and that large sums of money were paid for this work. This is said to explain why the vessel followed a course never taken by ships of equal draft.

Continuing, the Espana Nueva says the conduct of the captain and crew of the Sirio when the catastrophe occurred left much to be desired, and justifies belief in the reports that illicit traffic was going on.

According to some of the survivors the captain came from his cabin immediately after the first shock, hesitated whether to go to the bow or stern or mount the bridge, and then turned and jumped into a lifeboat, crying, "Everyone for himself!" Tuercupoo, they say, began a terrible scene of confusion among the passengers, who engaged in a fierce struggle for possession of the boats and hurled. The crew, with knives between their teeth, and officers, with revolvers in their hands, saved themselves, it is further asserted.

Luckiest Man in Arkansas.

"I'm the luckiest man in Arkansas," writes H. L. Stanley, of Bruno, "since the restoration of my wife's health after five years of continuous coughing and bleeding from the lungs; and I owe my good fortune to the world's greatest medicine, Dr. King's New Discovery for Consumption, which I know from experience will cure consumption if taken in time. My wife improved with first bottle and twelve bottles completed the cure." Cures the worst coughs and colds or money refunded. At E. S. Leadbeater & Sons' druggists. 50c and $1.00. Trial bottle free.

Bride and Groom Killed

Hiram B. Helmick and his bride of two weeks, while driving from Benton Harbor to St. Joseph, Mo., yesterday evening, were ground to pieces beneath the wheels of an electric car which struck the rundabout in which they were driving a skittish colt. Mrs. Helmick was instantly killed, while Mr. Helmick lived for a few moments, although literally wrapped about the wheels of his rig. A dozen physicians were summoned, but Helmick was dead before they arrived. Just before the rundabout and occupants reached the trolley crossing, Mr. Helmick drew up the colt, which, however, plunged madly forward as the car bore down at the rate of twenty-five miles an hour. The colt broke from the shafts and left the rig on the tracks. It was completely demolished.

Prof. Tyler, of Amherst college, said recently: "A man can live comfortably without brains; no man ever existed without a digestive system. The dyspeptic has neither faith, hope or charity." Day by day people realize the importance of caring for their digestion; realize the need of the use of a little corrective after overeating. A corrective like Kodol For Dyspepsia It digests what you eat. Sold by W. F. Creighton & Co., 401 Kingstreet.
